

INSTITUT BANCAIRE ET FINANCIER INTERNATIONAL
INTERNATIONAL BANKING AND FINANCE INSTITUTE

PROGRAM

On-line seminar

Sustainable finance

NOVEMBER 27- 30th 2023

Nov 15 – 8am

MONDAY 27 NOVEMBER 2023

9.20 Welcoming participants

9.30 – 10.00 0. Which outlook for climate related international negotiations and agreements ; the COP28 agenda and beyond

Céline KAUFFMANN, IDDRI, International Relations and Sustainable Development Institute

Climate risks and their transmission to the economy

10.00 – 10.45 1. Definitions of climate physical and transition risks; sources of macroeconomic and financial risks

Stéphane DEES, Head of the Climate Economics Unit

10.45 – 11.15 2. Constraints on commodities supply needed for the transition (critical metals) Stéphane DEES

11.15 – 11.45 3. The decomposition of inflation response to natural disasters

Christoph GROSSE STEFFEN, Deputy Head, Monetary Policy Unit

11.45 – 12.20 4. The NGFS work and its conceptual framework on nature-related financial risks and biodiversity loss ; Additional Focus : towards an assessment of the french financial systems' dependencies to biodiversity, and impact on biodiversity

Marie GABET, Center for Climate Change

Pause

2.00 – 2.40 5. Macroeconomic scenarios and modeling: an overview example of the BdF

Annabelle de GAYE, International Economics

Regional outlooks

2.45 – 3.30 6. Climate challenges and development ; financing transition in EMDEs ; Rising financing needs for adaptation

Luc JACOLIN and Quentin PAUL, International Economics

3.30 – 4.15 7. Green finance and deforestation reduction in Brazil : analysis of the Amazon Fund

Julio RAMOS TALLADA, International Banking and Finance Institute (IBFI)

End of session

TUESDAY 28 NOVEMBER 2023

9.20 Welcoming participants

9.30 – 10.10 8. Regional outlook : green finance in Asia Pacific, Camille MACAIRE, *BdF SingapourSustainable finance - Financial products10.10 – 10.50 9. The EU 2023 Sustainable Finance Package, including the EU taxonomy
Marion AUBERT, *EU Commission*10.50 – 11.30 10 The AMF report on the taxonomy reporting of listed non-financial companies
Chloé VINCENT, *Financial Market Authority (AMF)*11.30 – 12.00 11. ESG ratings ; Overview of EU proposal for Regulation of ESG Ratings
Stephen HYNES, *European Securities Market Authority (ESMA)*12.00 – 12.30 12. Sustainable debt issuances and holdings (green bonds)
Fabien RENOARD, Balance of Payments

Pause

2.00 – 2.30 13. Carbon pricing impact on the stock markets in the EU
Tatiana EVDOMIKOVA, *Joint Vienna Institute (JVI)Implications for central banks' mandates - Cross-cutting aspects2.30 – 3.00 14. The NGFS work regarding Net Zero alignment and information disclosure by central banks
Erlan Le CALVAR, *Center for Climate Change*3.00 – 3.40 15. The 'climate action' strategy of the BdF : objectives, governance, SRI Alexandre GAUTIER, *Deputy Director General, Financial Stability and Operations*3.45 – 4.15 16. Greening foreign reserves management at Banque de France
Simon-Pierre DULHERM, Markets Directorate, New York

9.20 Welcoming participants

9.30 – 10.00	17. Grasping climate-related financial risks via analytical statistical indicators: the European experience David NEFZI, Monetary and Financial Statistics Leopold GOSSET, ACPR
10.00 – 10.30	18. The assessment of climate risk for non-financial corporates by BdF Pierre MEIGNANT, Methodology Unit, Companies directorate
10.30 – 11.00	19. Climate data collection and data management ;Innovative methods Romain CALLEJA Data and Analytic Services and Maria ONFROY IT Directorate
Microprudential supervision
11.00 – 11.30	20.- Supervision of climate and environmental risks at the European level Emilie FIALON, Prudential Supervision and Resolution Authority (ACPR)
11.30 – 12.00	21. Prevailing practices on scenario analysis and stress testing models / exposures Laurent CLERC, Director Research and Risk Analysis, ACPR
12.00 – 12.45	22. Monitoring climate commitments and fossil fuel policies of financial institutions : the ACPR-AMF joint report Loïc BATEL ACPR, x, AMF

Pause

2.00 – 2.30	23. Lessons learned from inspections led by the AMF upon extra-financial contractual commitments of asset managers in France, Bruno BURESI, AMF
2.30 – 3.00	24. Non-financial ESG reporting : preparing for transparency, Yann MARIN, Deputy Director International Affairs, ACPR
3.00 – 3.15	Pause
3.15 – 3.45	25. A supervisory toolbox overview. The use of banks' and insurances' transition plans : towards a new supervision tool : Yann MARIN, ACPR
3.45 – 4.15	26. Regional outlook : green finance in the USA Jean-Baptiste PARMENTIER, BdF New York

End of session

9.20 Welcoming participants

Macprudential aspects
9.30 – 10.10	27. Financial stability implications of climate transition, and scenario analysis Stéphane DEES, Head of the Climate Economics Unit
10.10 – 10.50	28. Assessing climate-related risks with NGFS Scenarios Clément PAYEROLS, Center for Climate Change
11.00 – 11.30	29. Towards a macroprudential approach to climate risks at the european level Ludivine BERRET, Macroprudential Policy Unit
Monetary policy
11.30 –12.00	30. Effects on price stability of the transition to carbon neutrality, Oriane WEGNER, Climate Economics Unit
12.00 – 12.30	31. Greening monetary policy instruments of the Eurosystem Franck AUBERGER, Monetary policy implementation
12.30 –12.45	32.Feed-back on the IBFI questionnaire surveys (benchmarking) Thierry CUSSON, International Banking and Finance Institute (IBFI)
12.45 – 1.00	Conclusion and assessment : Thierry CUSSON, IBFI

End of the seminar